OPENING PRAYER		Geri Doolin
God, sometimes our lives have crashed and burned. We are in need of repair. We're beat up and run down. Our lives are in the junk yard. But you meet us right there, you bring us to your repair shop and you refuse to give up on us. May we know that we can bring our junk to you, and that you still receive us with open arms. You are the great restorer, and we put our trust in your grace. Amen.
